Immediately as you enter the center you feel the relaxed serenity, I have always likened it to a haven. The office welcomes you with genuine care and the integrity of respected professionalism; this professionalism follows through your office visit. Mary was highly recommended by my sister. I had tried traditional physical therapy for a frozen shoulder which was not helpful on any level in fact making things worse. Mary works in the approach of not only treating the physical issue at hand but applies her great wealth of knowledge and skill with her gifted abilities with the understanding and importance of treating, addressing the whole system, the physical, mind, spirit with her complete dedication for each patient. Staying humbled at all times which says so much of her unassuming nature, Mary is remarkable, gentle, caring, filled with angelic compassion, an incredible woman that has the centering, grounded natural abilities unlike anyone I have yet to encounter. I have encouraged over the eight, nine years to friends and to others when hearing of their needs when first meeting them to see Mary and have life changing results when like myself have not been obtained elsewhere, on a deeper level that imprints my own personal experience with the immense beauty of peace with connecting to my soul surpasses anything else and words don't give it the clarity, the magnitude. Thank you Mary!!!
